

ONE MAN'S FOLLY: THE EXCEPTIONAL HOUSES OF FURLOW GATEWOOD

by Julia Reed

A glimpse into the enchanting world of Furlow Gatewood and his compound of historical houses in Americus, Georgia, One Man's Folly has endeared the nonagenarian designer and antiques dealer to house lovers around the world.

“THE ESSENCE OF TASTE IS SUTTABILITY... THE MYSTERIOUS DEMAND OF EYE AND MIND FOR SYMMETRY, HARMONY, AND ORDER.”
EDITH WHARTON

TIMELESS STYLE by Suzanne Kasler

Kasler's second book, Timeless Style, further explores the work of this Atlanta designer, whose lauded interiors are known for their elegance and, at times, fashion-inspired touches.

GRACIOUS ROOMS

by Barbara Westbrook

The Atlanta-based designer's recently published volume features her well-edited and visually rich work, which has not only garnered her praise but has also landed her enviable design projects as far away as New Zealand.

THE DECORATION OF HOUSES

by Edith Wharton and Ogden Codman Jr.

Edith Wharton fans might be surprised to learn that the Pulitzer Prize-winning author's first book was a treatise on interior decoration, one that touted good taste and simplicity. Still in print, this 1897 book dispenses sound advice that remains relevant.

VOGUE'S BOOK OF HOUSES, GARDENS, PEOPLE by Valentine Lawford and Horst P. Horst

Peruse a well-stocked design library and you'll likely find a copy of this cult-status tome devoted to 1960s beautiful people and their homes, including Cy Twombly, Emilio Pucci, and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

GRACIOUS ROOMS

Barbara Westbrook

AN AFFAIR WITH A HOUSE

stewart
talbot
& chang

AN AFFAIR WITH A HOUSE by Bunny Williams

Before finding fame with her myriad product lines, designer Bunny Williams made a splash with this charming account of her 18th-century Connecticut house. A decade after it was published, her book remains wildly popular.