BARBARA WESTBROOK

Every room needs "a little polish and a little patina," the Atlanta designer says. This living room also has real punch.

PAINT

"The color has an intensity that's interesting and exciting. It makes a wonderful impact in a room full of neutrals."

Green Caper 16-23.
prattandlamert.com.

SHELL

"A natural element with a little crustiness keeps the room from being too pristine."

Lombok Ornament, made of resin, $1,250. olystudio.com.

CURTAINS

"The pattern is lyrical and the linen is lightweight, so it's not some stiff, formal damask. And it breaks up the solids without being distracting."

Regello, a hemp linen in Umber on Dust. legracieux.com.

PILLOW

"It's important to have lights and darks in a room to create contrast. This is a few shades darker than the wall color."

Silk Velvet Pillow in Ashwood, $225. wolfhomeny.com.

LAMP

"A jewel-like glass lamp adds a fresh, modern touch to this very traditional room."

Perfume Bottle Lamp in Bay, to the trade. portaromana-usa.com.

CHAIR

"Still the classic shape you know, but with the waterfall skirt it's fresher and cleaner. And it's very comfortable!"

Austin Club Chair, to the trade. dessinfournir.com.

TABLE

"Your eye goes straight to that nice shape. The French curve in the legs brings a softness to the room and helps break things up a little bit."

Elizabeth Side Table, $768. laylagrayce.com. ●
